

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, energy efficiency and protecting the environment is critical to the future of this nation and the State of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, one of the ways Idaho citizens can choose to be energy efficient and protect the environment is by using Energy Star qualified home products that feature the newest technologies; and

WHEREAS, it is important for state government to lead by example and provide information that will help all Idaho residents be energy efficient and protect natural resources; and

WHEREAS, Energy Star is a voluntary labeling program designed to help consumers easily identify the most energy efficient products on the market that save energy, money and help protect the environment; and

WHEREAS, to illustrate how a home can be made energy efficient, Energy Star has chosen the Alexander House, which is home to the Generation of the Child Literacy Program, Foundation for Idaho History, and Idaho Children's Trust Fund, to receive much needed appliances and home products donated through the Energy Star program and partnering manufactures and retailers; and

WHEREAS, on August 20, 2002, Energy Star qualified products will be installed in the historic Alexander House, demonstrating that it is never too late for any home to become energy efficient, and encouraging all Idaho residents to join in this effort;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim August 20, 2002, to be in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this twentieth day of August in the year of our Lord two-thousand and two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-seventh and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirteenth.
